

Michael Krick

Head Golf Professional

Carolina Trace Country Club

Michael Krick grew up in Williamsport, PA. (Home of the Little League World Series). His father was the Head Golf Professional at Williamsport Country Club. In his family, his father, Uncle Phil, Cousin, Phil Jr., and brother-in-law Mark are all golf professionals. He earned a B.S. degree with a concentration in Golf Management from Methodist College in 1991. His first position was at Ford's Colony in Williamsburg VA. At that time Ford's Colony was a 36-hole facility and has now grown to 54 holes. In 1994, he took a position as Assistant Golf Professional at Wee Burn Country Club in Darien, CT. He would spend his summers at Wee Burn and worked winters in FL. He spent one winter at Grand Cypress and the other three at The Windsor Club, in Vero Beach. He also taught at the Pace-Sheftic Golf Schools. In 1995, Mike earned his Class A Certification from the PGA of America. In the Fall of 1998, He was named the Head Golf Professional at Carolina Trace Country Club. Mike lives in the South Landing development of Carolina Trace.

MICHAEL B. KRICK

1451 Carolina Drive
Sanford, NC 27332
919-770-6330

Objective:

Experience: Carolina Trace Country Club, Head Golf Professional

Sanford, North Carolina

Carolina Trace is a 36 hole private club located just outside of Raleigh. Both courses were designed by Robert Trent Jones Sr. The club is set in a gated community and also offers tennis, swimming, boating and fishing.

September 1998
to Present

- Promote the game of golf in a professional manner.
- Responsible for the entire golf operation.
- Prepare and maintain an efficient budget.
- Manage and merchandise a full service golf shop which has increased in sales each year.
- Conduct active teaching programs, consisting of clinics, on course sessions, short game and full swing schools.
- Golf schools and private lessons include the Pro View video system.
- Author of short game and full swing workbooks to assist student retention.
- Junior program is recognized in the book, "Hey kids, start golf right," by John deGarmo.
- Stimulate and accomplish new ideas to improve efficiency of operation, such as a web page, information line and short game area.
- Develop the "Play with Pro" season long Pro-Am.
- Directed more than 200 member tournaments and several corporate outings yearly.
- Play an active tournament schedule in the Carolinas Section.

Wee Burn Country Club, Assistant Golf Professional

Roy Pace, Head Golf Professional

Darien, Connecticut

Wee Burn is a 106 year old, exclusive private Country Club with a very active membership. The course is ranked third in the state and has been host to major section events. The facility also includes tennis, shooting, bowling and a beach club.

April 1994
to
September 1998

- Supervised the Golf Operations Staff.
- Responsible for the Junior Golf Program.
- Conducted group, private and golf school lessons for membership.
- Utilize the highest level of video and teaching equipment.
- Designed and invented "Foot Works" teaching aid.
- Directed, scored and supervised over 50 member tournaments.
- Proficient in calligraphy for scoreboards and signs.
- Conducted a Junior Golf Marathon which raised over $4,000.00.
- Responsible for accounts payable.
- Computer knowledgeable, able to run a variety of software.
- Build and repair golf equipment.
- Played an active tournament schedule in the Metropolitan Section.

Ford's Colony Country Club, Assistant Golf Professional

Scott Harrill and Scott Jones, Head Golf Professionals

Williamsburg, Virginia

Ford's Colony is a 54 hole semi-private resort which generates more than 85,000 rounds of golf. The facility caters to members, hotel, and time share guests, corporate outings and public play. It is the past host site to the PGA Tour Qualifying for the Anheuser-Busch Classic.

*April 1989
to
March 1994*

- Responsible for organizing and directing over 150 member and corporate outings.
- Provided lessons to members and corporate outings.
- Started a junior program which grew to forty juniors in three years.
- Supervised and scheduled more than 15 cart attendants and 10 starters and rangers.

Pace-Sheftic Golf Schools, Teaching Instructor & Assistant Golf ProfessionalWindsor Club, Vero Beach, Florida

Roy Pace, Ted Sheftic and Bruce Carson, Golf Professionals

The Windsor Club is a very exclusive private Country Club. In addition to the course designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr., the facility also includes tennis, swimming, beach club and polo matches. It is the host site to the Office Depot Father - Son Challenge and the Pace - Sheftic Golf Schools. The golf schools consist of twenty students and last for five days. The students receive personalized instruction, course management and a concluding golf tournament.

Winter Employment

*February 1995,
1996, 1997
& 1998*

- Instructed students in basic fundamentals of the golf swing.
- Provided course strategy and stroke saving management.
- Directed and scored golf tournaments in each school.
- Operated the highest level of video equipment.
- Performed day to day operation and responsibilities.

Grand Cypress Golf Resort, Assistant Golf Professional

Jeff Osenkowski and Joe Angelino, Supervisors

Orlando, Florida

Grand Cypress is a 45 hole, five star resort with over a 120,000 rounds a year from hotel, resort and corporate play. The PGA Tour Skills Challenge, World Cup and LPGA Tournament of Champions have been hosted by the Jack Nicklaus designed courses.

*November 1995
to
March 1996*

- Responsible for resort play and group outings.
- Provided guest services to visitors from all over the world.
- Assisted in group clinics at Grand Cypress Academy of Golf.
- Assisted in the preparation of the LPGA Tournament of Champions.

Education:Methodist College, Fayetteville, North CarolinaProfessional Golf Management: Bachelor of Science in Business Administration

Learned all facets of the golf business through a comprehensive golf management program that combines classroom studies with summer internship. Major areas of study: Rules of Golf, Tournament Operations, Methods of Teaching, Agronomy, and Golf Shop Operations.

Class A Membership of the PGA of America - June 1995.Carolina Lakes Pro-Am - September 2002 - Winner - 67.